Virtual Events

Science Online

Every Wednesday in July @ 3:30

Join STEM librarian Christina Dorman on Facebook Live (facebook.com/MaineStateLibrary) for a weekly STEM activity using common household items.

Prior to the event day, visit the HPL Facebook page where we will post a list of items you will need for that week's project. Then on Wednesday, you'll be all ready to create and learn.

Here's the line-up:

July 6: Inflatable Invertebrates

INVERTEBRATES: animals without a backbone. Let's talk about crabs, mollusks, and the sea cucumber while we make something really cool!

July 13: Deep Sea Paper Circuits

BIOLUMINESCENCE: Light produced by living things. Anglerfish use bioluminescence; we'll mimic that by making an anglerfish circuit card.

July 20: Saturation Divers

Come find out what a saturation diver is and what a saturation diver does. Help design something that will help them enjoy their lunch.

July 27: Swimming Manta Rays

You DO NOT want to miss this one! Create your very own swimming Manta Ray!

Bike Drawing

(To be held August 4 at the HPL)

Here's how it works:

1. Read as many books as you'd like; the more books you read, the more entries you will have, the better your chances!
2. For each book you read, fill out an entry form. Entry forms are available at the library.
3. Every entry form will be entered into the drawing.
4. The drawing will take place on August 4.
5. Have a readingful, book-filled summer!
